

BIO DATA

Maj Gen A K M Musa Khan, MS, FCVS

Maj Gen A K M Musa Khan, MS, FCVS, was born on 30th November 1962 in an aristocrat muslim family of Mymensingh district.

He passed SSC from Edward Institution Mymensingh and HSC from A M College Mymensingh. He completed MBBS from Sylhet MAG Osmani Medical college in the year of 1985 and joined Bangladesh Army on 18th October 1986. He completed FCVS from the Yohanes Gutenberg University, Germany. Later on, he Completed MS in CVTS from National Institute of Cardiovascular Diseases (NICVD) Bangladesh. He also attended training on cardiac surgery in Riyadh, KSA in 2006 and training on pediatric cardiac surgery in Narayana Hrudayalaya (Dr. Devi Shetty) cardiac centre, India.

In his more than 36 years of military career he served in different units of Bangladesh Army with honour and dignity, like 61 Field Ambulance, Border Guard Bangladesh, Army Headquarters, CMH Chattogram and Dhaka.

He was promoted to the prestigious rank of Maj Gen on 17th May 2020 and proved his excellence as a Commandant of Armed Forces medical college. Presently he is appointed as the Director General Medical Services of Bangladesh Armed Forces.

He has numerous publications in renowned national and international Journals. The General visited Thailand, Singapur, Malaysia, Italy, Belgium, France, Germany, Netherlands, Brunei, Luxembourg, Sweden, Norway, Qatar and Egypt.

He is enlighten with Madam Anwara Quadir Khan. They are blessed with one son and one daughter.