

Alejandro Espinoza Bieschke

Real Admiral SN

Director of Healthcare of the Chilean Navy

Rear Admiral Naval Of Healthcare Alejandro Espinoza, was born in Viña del Mar on December 10, 1969 and studied at the German School of Valparaiso.

Rear Admiral Espinoza holds the professional degree of Medical Surgeon from the University of Valparaiso, graduating in 1995. The following year, he joined the institution as First Lieutenant. He made his specialty in Traumatology and Orthopedics at the Universidad de Concepción, graduating in 2001. Subsequently, he completed a period of advanced training at the Carl Gustav Carus University in Dresden, Germany. He has a Diploma in Management in Health Institutions, Public Health and Preventive Medicine and a Master's Degree in Health at the University of Chile.

His latest promotions and assignments are:

2018 He served as Director of the Naval Hospital "Almirante Adriaola" in Talcahuano.

2020 Served as Director of the Naval Hospital "Almirante Nef" of Viña del Mar.

2022 Served as Deputy Director of Healthcare of the Chilean Navy.

2022 On December 1st he assumed as Director of Healthcare of the Chilean Navy.

2022 The Supreme Government conferred him the promotion to the rank of Rear Admiral.