WELCOME MESSAGE

Dear Delegates, Dear Colleagues,

*The Surgeon General of the Hellenic Armed Forces, Rear Admiral Antonios Papageorgiou HN has the honor and pleasure to invite you to participate in the 6th ICMM Pan European Congress on Military Medicine which will be held in Athens, from 16th to 19th April 2024.

The 6th Pan European Congress on Military Medicine is expected to be an important link in the chain of cooperation between our countries in the military health sector and will serve most appropriately and fruitfully in exchanging ideas and practical experience in the military medical operational field. The congress program will consist of scientific sessions, workshops, and poster presentations.

The organization of the 6th ICMM Pan European Congress on Military Medicine will offer the participants the opportunity to discover Athenian antiquities such as the Acropolis with the temple of Parthenon. Don't miss this opportunity to visit the wonderful city of Athens to enjoy its offer of first-class conference facilities, accommodation, culture, gastronomy, nature, and beauty.

For more details and registration regarding the 6th ICMM European Regional Congress on Military Medicine, please visit the congress website: www.6thicmmathensgreece.com

Looking forward to meeting you,

Rear Admiral Antonios Papageorgiou HN
Surgeon General of the Hellenic Armed Forces
