

Tunis 9th Course on Law of Armed Conflict and Medical Ethics

Invitation letter from the Course chairman

Dear colleagues and friends,

Under the auspices of the International Committee of Military Medicine (ICMM) and in collaboration with the ICMM Center of Reference for Education on International Humanitarian Law and Ethics, the Tunisian General Directorate of Military Health organizes the 9th Course on Law of Armed Conflict and Medical Ethics which will take place in Tunis, in the Training school of the Military Health Services (TSMHS) during the period of November 25- 29, 2024.

This course focuses on the importance of medical ethics on the military field, the medical confidentiality and informed consent during conflicts and peacekeeping missions. The course highlights the dual duty of the health officer how to conciliate between human behavior at wartimes and the judicial proceedings of the war crime perpetrators.

This course is open for participation of health officers and military judges from ICMM country members. It will be led by Tunisian and international speakers from ICMM Reference Center in both English and French languages. It is supported by the Regional Delegation of the International Committee of the Red Cross in Tunis.

On this occasion, it's an honor to welcome you among us to take part in this scientific event.

Brigadier General (MD) Mounir AZAIEZ
Surgeon General of Tunisian Armed Forces
